

Common Core State Standards and PTA: what you need to know

Hosted by the 15th District PTA
at the VanHoose Education Center
3332 Newburg Road, Louisville, KY

4/18/2011

6:30-

8:00pm

Created by teachers, parents, education experts, and others from across the country, the standards provide clear, consistent expectations for what students should be learning at each grade in order to be prepared for college and career. Learn more about how your PTA can help families understand this changing landscape of education.
